

Table of Contents: Introduction • I. THE INTELLECTUAL DEVELOPMENT OF EUROPE IN THE 12TH–15TH CENTURIES • 1. The Birth and Development of the Universities of Bologna and Paris — the European Intellectual Centres (1.1. Law Schools of Bologna • 1.2. The University of Paris — the Philosophical and Theological Centre of Europe) • 2. Formation of the European Intellectual Centre in Oxford in the 13th and 14th Centuries (2.1. The Founders of the Oxford Franciscan School • 2.2. The Intellectual Influence of the Oxford Academic Milieu on the University of Paris in 14th Century) • 3. The Development of the University Movement in Europe in the 13th Century — Formation of Minor Intellectual Milieus (3.1. Formation of the University Network • 3.2. Studia Generalia of the Mendicant Orders in the Intellectual Geography of Medieval Europe • 3.3. A Manuscript Book as the Basic Tool for Intellectual Work of University Milieus) • 4. Intellectual Development of Central and East-Central Europe in the 14th–15th Centuries (4.1. Central and East-Central Europe under the Influence of Bologna and Paris • 4.2. Formation of the First Universities in Central and East-Central Europe in the 14th Century • 4.3. The Influence of the Western Schism and the Hundred Years' War on the Crisis of Parisian Milieu and the Intellectual Intensification of Central and East-Central Europe • 4.4. Prague as the Most Important Intellectual Centre of Central and East-Central Europe • 4.5. Doctrinal Trends at Universities of Central Europe in the 14th and 15th Centuries • 4.6. Humanism in Central and East-Central Europe in the 15th Century and Early 16th Century) • II. INTELLECTUAL ACHIEVEMENTS OF POLISH INTELLECTUALS, SIGNIFICANT FOR EUROPE IN THE MIDDLE AGES • 1. Intellectuals from Piast Lands in the European Intellectual Milieus in the 13th and the First Half of the 14th Century • 2. Polish Intellectuals at the Universities of Prague and Heidelberg and Their Influence on the European Thought • 3. Formation of the Krakow Intellectual Milieu (3.1. Foundation of the University of Krakow • 3.2. Reception of the European Intellectual Achievements by the University of Krakow • 3.3. The University of Krakow and the Hussite Movement) • 4. European Intellectual Achievements of the Krakow University Milieu (4.1. The Krakow School of International Law • 4.2. The Church Reform and Conciliarism in the Writings of Krakow Intellectuals in the Panorama of the European Culture • 4.3. Krakow Intellectuals' Achievements in Maths, Astronomy and Geography in the 15th Century and the Early 16th Century • 4.4. The Collapse of the International Status of the Krakow Intellectual Milieu in the Second Quarter of the 16th Century) • Conclusion • Bibliography • Index of Persons