

CONTENTS

Austro-Prussian War of 1866, Landscape Archaeology of the Battlefield of Sadowa-Königgratz

Matouš Holas

Battlefield of Archaeology of the First World War in Northeastern Slovakia

Martin Wojtas, Jakub Tesrohldek, Michaela Prištakova, Jan Petrik, Martin Fojtik, Jiri Zubalik, Radim Kapavik and Peter Tajkov

Why is Archaeology Inalienable in Learning about the Traces of the Great War in Kozienice Forest and Restoring the Memory of the Forgotten History of a Century Ago?

Angelika Bachanek

The Lviv Archaeological Milieu During World War I

Natalia Bułyk and Roman Berest

Discovery of a German V-2 Rocket Fall Site in the Area of Chodzież, in Greater Poland

Piotr Alagierski, Katarzyna Kuczara-Alagierska and Maciej Sokołowski

Cracow's Glinik -World War 11 Executions Place, Forgotten over the Years and Restored to the Collective Memory. Preliminary Results of Archaeological-and-Exhumation Research

Krzysztof Tunia

Importance of Particular Groups of Objects in the Identification of Victims of the Katyn Massacre in the Case of Finds from Kharkiv

Anna Drążkowska

Archaeological Research on the Former KL Auschwitz I and KL Auschwitz II-Birkenau site

Sylvia Foks, Dariusz Goński and Błażej Targaczewski

Plastic Artefacts from Archaeological Investigations Carried out at the Auschwitz-Birkenau Camp Complex in 2015-2022

Wojciech Tabaszewski and Kamila Peschel

Classification and Significance of Material Culture from Archaeological Research of Section Blb of the Former KL Auschwitz II - Birkenau

Paweł Lewicki and Magdalena Mazurkiewicz

If Archaeology is Not Just About the Past. The Landscape of the KL Plaszow Memorial

Kamil Karski and Dawid Kobialka

Soldiers on the Digs. Archaeological Excavations in Switzerland Involving the Deuxieme Division des Chasseurs

Piotr Włodarczak and Urs Leuzinger

The Formation of the Units of the Polish People's Army (1944-1945) in Eastern Poland. The LiDAR Evidence

Jakub M. Niebylski, Damian Stefański and Przemysław Wierzbicki

Landscape of Resistance. Traces of the Military Training of the Lithuanian Liberation Army in Plokštine Forest, Samogitia, Northwestern Lithuania

Gediminas Petrauskas