

Abstract

The collected articles, arranged chronologically – from the Third Dynasty of Ur to the modern period – discuss issues relating in particular to the barbarian peoples within the borders of the Roman Empire and the problems of late antique administration.